IMPROVING YOUR WORKSPACE

Nederman and BMW Service
Bringing fresh ideas to premium class service stations

With premium class cars follows premium class service

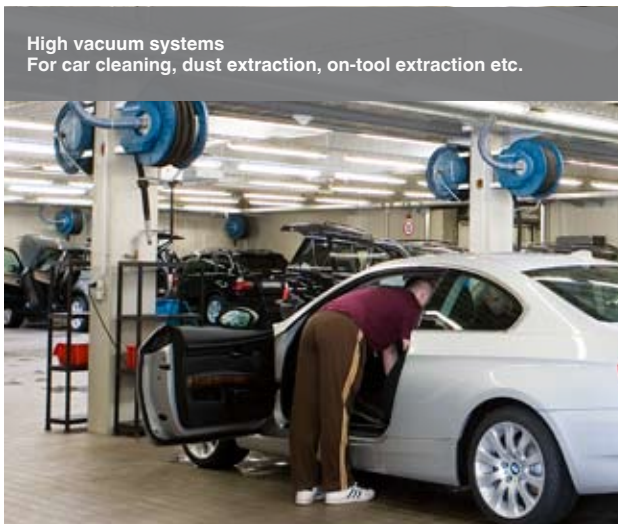

With premium class cars follows premium class service – that’s indisputable. That’s why BMW Service builds their service concept on the very best conditions. A good working environment is not only a question of health and a good working atmosphere. It is as well an integral part of the BMW image. This workshop and service station, designed in close cooperation with Nederman, is a good example of that.
